

We Made The Decision in 2016 – Learn to Live With It

We joined The Common Market in 1975 - or so we thought. 2/3rds of the voters (67%) thought it a good idea, if only that had been the aim. I was one of the 33% of voters (1/3rd) who said 'No' strongly suspecting a trap. We've been proved right!

For the last 40 years, the EU has been forging a federal European state by stealth, the long-term aim being the surrender of each country's sovereignty. Its purpose is to take control of everything we do – and I mean everything!

UKIP noted the acceleration of EU rules and directives into every aspect of our lives in the last 10 to 15 years. Certainly, since Blair's time in office there was huge damage done to our freedom. Although our MEPs fought bravely in the European Parliament, the Europhile MEPs, Lib Dem, some Tory and Labour, kept pressing the 'Yes' button, before collecting their money and scampering home by Eurostar.

Even worse, the 'enemy within' has worked insidiously against the British people's decision in the 2016 Referendum through 'Common Purpose' in the civil service, council offices, education system and more. The connivance of Mark Carney in The Bank of England and the BBC, further blurs reality by extreme biased unbalanced reporting.

However, we are where we are. If Article 50 is extended, there is the possibility of UK MEPs standing for election.

We must get UKIP MEPs in Cornwall, UKIP MPs in Westminster, and councillors in town halls etc. Please support your branch committees in all these efforts.

We work incessantly for Brexit, which gives the freedom to live in this country where our laws are made by the democratically elected Westminster Parliament, not by unelected bureaucrats in another country. When this is achieved, everything else is within our grasp. Brussels knows this very well – and is showing its anger as it sees control slipping away. Are we going to take them on?

Now, sinister rumblings of another Referendum are surfacing. So we say to the likes of Heseltine, Clark (both Bilderbergs) Cable, Blair etc - " We made the decision in 2016. Learn to live with it!"
